Task 1. As you read the story, decide whether this summary of the story is correct (C) or wrong (W) :

1. Jim finds a treasure map, which he sells to pirates, who promise to pay him - once they've found the treasure.

The story begins a long time ago, in London, where a skinny-looking young boy called Jim Hawkins lives. He finds a dusty old sea chest hidden in the cellar of his house. Using all his strength, he manages to lift open the heavy lid. He peers inside and finds a rolled-up piece of tattered old paper. In no time he's unrolling the piece of paper, revealing a map showing an island with a cross on it. "Surely this must mean there's treasure buried there?" he says to himself.

Knowing that it will only be a matter of time before someone else finds the treasure, he rushes off to find a ship that will take him across the sea to this distant island. The journey is long and at times the sea is rough and stormy. As time goes by, Jim realises the crew are not the honest and helpful bunch of men he believed them to be – they're pirates! As they can't be trusted, he doesn't tell them about the treasure map – but the crew are suspicious.

At one time or another, an old pirate captain had hidden a horde of treasure on a secret island, and the pirates know this is where Jim is heading. One night he overhears them hatching a plan...

"This must be the island where Captain Flint left all that gold and silver" says one of them.

"We'll let Jim lead us to the treasure and then kill him" says another.

Task 2. Check you know the meaning of the word "time".

2. As soon as Jim finds the piece of paper, he unrolls it.

Task 3. Read the second part of the text and select the right expressions in the quiz below.

Jim Hawkins is sailing to an island to find some treasure. Let's see what happens next.

Eventually they reach the island. Jim tells the crew to wait where they are while he goes to explore. Nervously, he sets off to find the treasure. Time after time he stops to look behind him to check that he's not being followed - but secretly the pirates are following in his footsteps, hoping to carry out their deadly plan. In no time, he finds the place and furiously starts digging but before he can find the treasure, the pirates arrive. One of them seizes hold of him, pointing a gun to his head, whilst the others eagerly continue to dig, a crazed look in their eyes. It's time-consuming, but after a while they begin to realise there isn't any treasure.

BANG! At that moment, a gunshot rings out – BANG and another – BANG and another! Somebody is shooting at the pirates, killing them outright. Three pirates lie on the yellow sand, blood oozing out of their bodies. The fourth one, who is holding Jim, runs off, screaming in a panic.

An old man, with skin that looks like leather, and a long white scruffy beard, appears from the bushes holding a smoking gun. It was him that shot the pirates. He tells Jim he used to work with the old pirate captain and was left on this island a long time ago. He had dug up the treasure and is keeping it in the cave where he lives. He tells Jim that he will share the treasure with him in return for a journey home. Jim is more than happy to agree and they set sail for London. At times, Jim has nightmares about his experience and vows never to go treasure hunting again.
