

Speaking

Time: 15 minutes

SET 1 Student 1

Preparation - 10 minutes: use the proverb to comment on it

Monologue: Speak not less than 1,5-2 minutes.

A friend in need is a friend indeed

TASK

Your task is to comment on the proverb “A friend in need is a friend indeed”. Follow the next plan:

- Express your agreement or disagreement with the statement.
- Explain your choice.
- Give two examples (your own or from books or films).
- Make a conclusion.

You can make notes during the preparation time, but YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO READ them during the presentation.

YOUR ANSWERS WILL BE RECORDED

Speaking

Time: 15 minutes

SET 2 Student 2

Preparation - 10 minutes: use the proverb to comment on it

Monologue: Speak not less than 1,5-2 minutes.

Better late than never

TASK

Your task is to comment on the proverb “Better late than never”. Follow the next plan:

- Express your agreement or disagreement with the statement.
- Explain your choice.
- Give two examples (your own or from books or films).
- Make a conclusion.

You can make notes during the preparation time, but YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO READ them during the presentation.

YOUR ANSWERS WILL BE RECORDED

Speaking

Time: 15 minutes

SET 3 Student 3

Preparation - 10 minutes: use the proverb to comment on it

Monologue: Speak not less than 1,5-2 minutes.

Tastes differ

TASK

Your task is to comment on the proverb “Tastes differ”. Follow the next plan:

- Express your agreement or disagreement with the statement.
- Explain your choice.
- Give two examples (your own or from books or films).
- Make a conclusion.

You can make notes during the preparation time, but YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO READ them during the presentation.

YOUR ANSWERS WILL BE RECORDED