PART 1

Task 1

SCRIPT

For Questions 1-10 you will hear three friends talking about a film they went to see. Before you listen, read through the list of statements below. As you listen, decide whether each statement is true (T) or false (F). You will hear the information twice.

Now you have 1 minute to look at the task.

Pause 1 minute

Now listen to the talk and answer questions 1-10.

Maria

So, Anna, what did you think of the film?

Anna

Well, Maria, when David suggested going...

David

Oh I see, blame me, is it?

Anna

Oh no, I agreed to come, although, generally speaking, it's just not my kind of film, you know, historical. However, it turned out pretty well, as far as I'm concerned.

David

That's a relief, then. What about you, Maria?

Maria

Not bad, I guess. Actually, you know, I'd forgotten to eat before we went, so I kept wanting it to end, so I could go and get something to eat – very silly. It stopped me concentrating properly – the film seemed to go on too long.

Anna

And you, David?

David

Well, it's true it was long, but that's because it needed to be, I think. It's a complicated story.

Maria

Hm, which doesn't make it a good one, I'm afraid. But the setting of the film, and the changes between locations were all good, and kept you involved – actually, in spite of the story, if you see what I mean.

Anna

Maybe you should do what I did then...

David

Which is...?

Anna

Read the book. I read it, I suppose, a year ago and loved it. That was the other thing that made me want to go. But the book is still the more interesting version. So, do try it, Maria.

Maria

OK, maybe I will.

David

I don't know about the book, though I wondered about the DVD for my sister's birthday, which is coming up soon. But she doesn't like the small screen, so I'm going to buy her a couple of tickets instead.

Maria

She should like that.

Anna

Yeah.

David

Now, what about seeing if...

Task 2

SCRIPT

For questions 11-20 you will hear a young college student talking about the places he's lived in. Match the information in column A to the right numbers in column B. There is one number that you will have to use twice. You will hear the information twice.

Now you have 1 minute to look at the task.

Pause 1 minute

Now listen to the talk and answer questions 11-20.

When I was born, my parents were living in a house in a small village about 20 kilometres from the capital. I was three years old when my brother was born and my parents decided that we needed a larger home. We first moved into a rented flat for fifteen months while the new block of flats we were going to move to was being completed. I don't think my parents liked the rented flat because it was smaller than our old house.

We finally moved into the capital at the beginning of 1988. Our flat wasn't really large, only 68 square metres, but there was enough room for two adults and two small boys. There were two bedrooms, a cosy living-room with a balcony, a small bathroom and a kitchen, where we used to have the family meals, as well.

I started school the following September, and my brother went to kindergarten. I still remember my first day at school. I even remember that there were 38 students in my class – but of course I've long forgotten most of their names by now.

We lived in the same flat all the time I was at school. I only moved house again when I started university in 2003. I decided to study forestry so I had to move to a town near the border. Rents were quite expensive, so I decided to move into a shared flat. Five of us rented a large flat in the city centre, and shared all the housework. I had the time of my life! I'm still living in the same town, but I'm sharing with just one person now. It's more comfortable but I often miss the big parties we used to have at the other place.
