READING (11 points)

Time: 15 min.

Task 1. Look at the pictures, read about eight products designed to make your flight more comfortable and match the products (1-8) with the descriptions (A-H).

A TEMPURA SLEEP MASK Very different from the thin eye masks in the average in-flight pack. The Tempur cuts out all light and really helps prevent the tiredness that often results from an overnight flight. £22.95 from Back2 (www.back2.co.uk)

B JETREST An overnight flight in economy class becomes almost comfortable with a Jetrest head support round your neck. It provides all the comfort of a real pillow and helps prevent neck ache. £19.95 from Back2.

C ACCUSTRAP Not a new invention, but believed by many to help control the sickness caused by air travel. It works by pressing gently on the acupuncture points of each wrist. Suitable for adults or children to relieve sickness during any form of travel. £4.99 from the Aviation Health Institute (www.aviation-health.org).

D AIROGYM This inflatable leg exerciser improves circulation, reduces the risk of DVT and helps prevent swollen ankles. Press down hard with each foot in turn to move the air from side to side. The hissing sound may cause concern among your neighbours, though. £8.30 from Airogym (www.airogym.com).

E SELF-INFLATING TRAVEL PILLOW Designed to relieve the back pain that can develop when you are sitting in cramped economy class seats. There is no need to exercise your lungs as it is self-inflating. £29.85 from Magellans (www.magellans.co.uk).

F STRESS BALL Help nervous fliers reduce their stress levels. It fits neatly into the palm of the hand and is so soft that you won't be able to stop squeezing it. £5.95 from Back2.

G BOSE QUIETCOMFORT2 We tested these expensive luxury headphones, and the results were amazing. They reduce the noise levels inside the cabin and come with leads for listening to personal stereos or in-flight movies. Better still, you can read in silence. £275 from BOSE (www.bose.co.uk).

H PUR OXYGEN Improve air quality at the back of a plane by taking your own oxygen – as used (so the suppliers claim) by David Beckham and Britney Spears. Check with your airline, though – not all welcome it. £11.95 from Paramount Zone (www.paramountzone.com).

Task 2. For items (9-16), decide which gadget (A-H) from Task 1 you should buy if you:

9 feel worried about flying?

10 prefer to sleep in the dark?

11 often feel unwell on a plane?

12 need to stretch your legs while sitting?

13 would like to sit quietly?

14 would like to breathe better air?

15 want to sit more comfortably?

16 want to sleep more comfortably?

Task 3. For items (17-22), read the definitions below and write the corresponding words from the texts from Task 1.

17 sth which can be filled with air

18 a condition which causes pain in the leg and can be dangerous

19 bigger and rounder than usual

20 uncomfortable due to lack of space

21 becomes full of air by itself

22 pressing sth in your hands
