Time: 10 minutes

1. Monologue. Time: 4 minutes.

You are planning to buy a present for your friend, but you aren't sure what to buy. You want to get her/him something she/he will like. Here are some possible presents you could choose. Decide which one would be best for your friend.

Speak about the present and explain your choice.

You will have to start in 2 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes (12-14 sentences).

Remember

- to say what you have chosen for your friend;
- to give a brief description of the present;
- to say what are the advantages of this present;
- to say why you have chosen this present;
- to explain why you like giving presents to your friends.

You can make notes during the preparation time, but you are not allowed to read the notes made during the preparation time.

2. Monologue. Time: 6 minutes.

You are currently taking an online course in English. You are going to advise your friend to join it. Give a talk on learning foreign languages online.

You will have to start in 3 minutes and speak for not more than 3 minutes (14-16 sentences).

Remember to talk about

- why learning online is so popular nowadays;
- different opportunities that distance learning can offer in learning languages;
- the benefits online learning brings;
- why you have decided to study English online.

You have to talk continuously.

You can make notes during the preparation time, but you are not allowed to read the notes made during the preparation time.
