4. Jack is very fit and is planning a challenging 200 km run. He wants to train at least twice a week and would like some personal training too. He wants to train indoors and outdoors.
5. Tara takes sport seriously. She plays hockey and tennis and wants to improve her skills and take part in competitions. She isn't free from Monday to Friday.

Sports classes

A Sport for life

Weekly sessions in seven different sports, including squash, tennis and basketball. Do your favourite sport or try new ones each week. Classes take place on Thursdays 3–4 pm and Sundays 2–3.30 pm in Green Park and in the Park Gym. We don't believe in winners and losers, just having fun!

B Top training

Our club offers individual training sessions in the gym, with a personal trainer. The class is ideal for people who enjoy training alone and are keen to improve their fitness, or people who have particular difficulties with their fitness. Classes: every morning 9–11 am.

C Active plus!

This is a great class for people who enjoy playing sport with others in an informal way. Choose from a range of sports, including 5-a-side football and hockey. Classes are on Saturdays from 9–11 am. We provide balls, hockey sticks, etc. and a monthly report on how your fitness is improving

D Water-cise!

Have fun and get fit at your local sports centre! Classes every Tuesday and Thursday from 6–8 pm. No two classes are the same! We organise regular competitions and also offer individual fitness checks every month, plus the chance to gain progress certificates.

G Rising stars

We believe sports are for winners! We offer training from professional sports coaches to help you become a more successful player. Choose from a range of team and racket sports. Players are encouraged to join local and national leagues. Classes: every Saturday and Sunday, or book an individual lesson with one of our trainers.

H Go for it!

This is a class for people who want to push themselves so they can compete against other people or themselves! Training takes place every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Classes involve a one-hour run in the park, followed by weight training in the gym. Individual coaching and advice on improving fitness at home are also available.

Task 2

For items 6-10, read the text and choose the best answer for the questions below.

MARK TWAIN AND THE ASCOT GOLD CUP

The news of Mark Twain's arrival in England in June, 1907, was announced in the papers with big headlines. Immediately following the announcement was the news –also with big headlines – that the Ascot Gold Cup had been stolen the same day. The combination, MARK TWAIN ARRIVES – ASCOT CUP STOLEN, amused the public.

The Lord Mayor of London gave a banquet at the Mansion House in honor of Mark Twain where the American writer delivered the following speech:

“I do assure you that I am not so dishonest as I look. I have been so busy trying to rehabilitate my honor about that Ascot Cup that I have had no time to prepare a speech. I was not so honest in former days as I am now, but I have always been reasonably honest. Well, you know how a man is influenced by his surroundings.

Once upon a time I went to a public meeting where I was impressed by the speech of a charitable worker. I thought I could drop a big sum of money for charity in the hat – it had come round at that moment. The speaker had the power of putting those vivid pictures before one. We were all affected. That was the moment for the hat. I was going to put two hundred dollars in. Before he had finished I even intended to put in four hundred dollars. I felt I could even fill up a blank check – with somebody else's name – and drop it in. Well, now, another speaker got up, and in fifteen minutes changed my mood for the worse; and during the speech of the third speaker all my enthusiasm went away. When at last the hat came round I dropped in ten cents – and took out twenty-five.

I came over here to get the honorary degree from Oxford, the greatest honor that has ever fallen to my share. I am grateful to Oxford for granting me that honor, and I am sure my country appreciates it, because first and foremost it is an honor to my country.

And now I am going home again across the sea. My soul is young but my body is old, so that it is unlikely that when I go away I shall ever see England again. But I shall go with the feelings of the warm and kind welcome I have had. I suppose I must say “Good-bye.” I say it not with my lips only, but from the heart.”

6. Why did the combination of the headlines amuse the public?

- A. Mark Twain took part in the famous horse racing competition.
 - B. Mark Twain saw the person stealing the Ascot Gold Cup.
 - C. The events mentioned in the papers were sensational.
 - D. The public could think that the two events were connected.
7. The aim of Mark Twain's visit to England was ...
- A. to attend the horse racing competition.
 - B. to prepare a speech for the Ascot Gold Cup.
 - C. to be honored by the world famous university.
 - D. to attend the banquet given by the Lord Mayor of London.
8. What was the main purpose of Mark Twain's banquet speech?
- A. To show how ironic the combination of two contrasting events in the newspapers was.
 - B. To underline that he became more dishonest.
 - C. To show how much he disliked England.
 - D. To demonstrate how good at story-telling he was.
9. Which of the statements about dropping the money in the hat at the public meeting is true?
- A. The money was paid for the pictures the speaker drew and sold.
 - B. The more impressive the speaker was, the more money the people put in.
 - C. The first orator's speech was getting less interesting and impressive.
 - D. The money meant that the third orator's speech did not disappoint Mark Twain.
10. Mark Twain was not planning to see England again because ...
- A. he knew he would be in no mood to visit the country.
 - B. the warm feelings of the tour could make him think of it.
 - C. the writer was too old to have another tour in several years.
 - D. British people's welcome was too warm and kind to have it again in the future.
