Listening (script)

You will hear three speakers talking about travel experiences. Complete the information. Use one word in each space.

Speaker 1: Last year I went to Australia. I only had three weeks, so I crammed a lot into a short time, but it was fantastic. I mostly stayed in hostels. They were ok but pricey. To save money I travelled from place to place by bus. They were cheap, reliable, and safe. The people were welcoming and kind. The sights were incredible, I took hundreds of photos. The weather was lovely, it wasn't too hot but sunny enough to wear shorts and T-shirts.

Speaker 2: I had a dreadful time when I went to Italy last year. It started off well. I arrived in Rome and went straight to my hotel, and it was lovely. On the first day, I walked around taking in the sights and trying out the local cuisine. I ate so much food. I couldn't help it; it tasted so good. But then the next morning I felt terrible. I couldn't stop throwing up and slept day and night. It lasted for the whole trip. I didn't get to see any more sights or do any activities. I only saw the inside of my hotel room. Fortunately, the hotel staff were wonderful and looked after me.

Speaker 3: Oh, it was a wonderful holiday. I loved every moment. Venice is just a paradise. We did everything – we went on a gondola, we saw all the museums, and we had some fantastic meals. And you know, everyone says Venice is expensive, but I didn't think it was – it wasn't an expensive holiday at all. I thought it was quite reasonable. We all got on very well. I think I'm going to suggest to Isabelle and Laura that we go on holiday together again next year.
